

Central Purpose Activity

Around the class, there are stations with different informational texts. Look under the name of selection to make sure you have the right article. Fill out the following table about that piece of text.

Name of Selection	What is the Central Purpose of this Passage?	What did the author hope to accomplish by writing this selection?	Choose the statement that is most important
Pembroke Observer 1 million need aid, UN says
Experience Canada “Energy Use in Canada” pg 223
Transitions in Society “Leadership” pg 71
National Post “Starbucks battles rising supply costs”
National Post “Ford awards CEO Mulally $56.6M in stock”
National Post “Long time friends finally ready to tie the knot in their mid 80’s”
Pembroke Observer “Habs out for revenge”
Geography Now “Impacts of Tourism” pg 224
What Great Teachers Do Differently “Handling the High Achievers” pg 78			